

*This book is a must-read for those who are serious about examining the issue of violence against women and children.
A collection of thought-provoking, emotional and sometimes controversial writings that display the writers' passions, beliefs and experiences.*

OPEN SECRET – Breaking the Silence on Violence against Women and Children is a contemporary look at the issues of domestic and sexual violence, their impact on families, communities and society. It is essential reading for everyone who cares about equality. This collection of writings will inspire an examination of our responses to women and children who live with the effects of abuse.

The Open Door Network is Kerry's response to violence against women and children. Since 1996 our members have worked together to inform, support and build a co-ordinated community response to violence against women across Kerry. This publication aims to share our learning and harness the experiences of survivors, supporters and service providers.
